

The Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgery Residency Alumni Lecture

Proud of its many renowned alumni, the UCSF Otolaryngology - Head and Neck Surgery Residency Program established this lectureship to welcome back a distinguished graduate whose practice and achievements have contributed greatly to his or her community.

2015 Alumni Lecturer

Todd Broberg, M.D.

Southern California Permanente Medical Group

"What you will hear when you Listen."

Friday, June 19, 2015

12:00 p.m. – Introduction by Andrew H. Murr, MD, FACS

12:10 p.m. to 12:50 p.m. – Lecture and Q & A Session

UCSF Mission Bay Hospital / Betty Irene Moore Women's Hospital & Bakar Cancer Hospital
1855 4th Street, San Francisco, CA 94158
William & Susan Oberndorf Auditorium on the 1st Floor

* Disclosure declaration: The individual named above (Dr. Broberg) declares that neither he nor any immediate member of his family have financial arrangements or affiliations with the manufacturers of any commercial products discussed in this continuing medical education activity. In addition, he does not intend to include information or discuss investigations or off-label use of pharmaceutical products or medical devices.

This program is sponsored by the University of California at San Francisco School of Medicine (UCSF). UCSF is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Graduate Medical Education (ACGME) to sponsor continuing medical education for physicians.

The Office of CME designates this continuing medical education activity on an hour-for-hour basis in Category 1 of the Physician's Recognition Award of the American Medical Association and the Certificate Program of the California Medical Association.

Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery (Course # MGR15041)